The City Solicitor requested a short executive session for legal: pending lawsuits.

Mr. Gallagher said he had been given copies of some old ordinances enacted by the City in the 1870's and 1880's. He read a couple of them for everyone's entertainment. One dealt with the penalties for loitering around the streets or houses of ill fame, which included fines up to $50 and/or imprisonment up to 30 days on bread and water. The other required all able bodied male residents between the ages of 21 and 55 to perform two days annually of labor on the streets, roads, or alleys in town.

Mr. Wallis said he had been reading information put out by the Ohio Municipal League and asked whether the City needed to do anything related to the census. Ms. Landers and Mr. Greene both responded that there is nothing required for us to do. Ms. Landers said that we had received mailings very early on inviting us to participate in formulating the list of addresses that census workers will visit, but that as she understands it, as a village, we are under the County's administrative role.
